

THE REFORMATION SOCIETY OF OREGON SPRING THEOLOGY CONFERENCE PRESENTS

GOSPEL-DRIVEN: Good News People in a Bad News World

THE REFORMATION SOCIETY OF OREGON AND ESTACADA CHRISTIAN CHURCH CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO GOSPEL-DRIVEN: Good News People in a Bad News World

Join us for this special event as Michael Horton challenges us to reorient our faith and practice toward the gospel. In his most recent book, Christless Christianity: The Alternative Gospel of the American Church, Michael Horton convinced us of a big problem in the contemporary church, namely the creeping fog of countless sermons that focus on moralistic concerns and personal transformation rather than Jesus Christ crucified and risen again. Now Michael Horton will point us to the solution: a return to the Christ-centered gospel. This one day conference will help us to look deeper at the surprising ways in which God is gathering a people for his feast in a fast-food world. Distinguished from all religions, spiritualities, and philosophies of life, the Christian Faith is, at its heart, a gospel (meaning "good news"). If our churches today are focused on our action, piety, and world-transforming agendas, then the crying need of our day is a return to the unadulterated gospel that seats us at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as the Triune God serves us with his heavenly gifts which deliver forgiveness, new life, and genuine transformation.
